Documents to Upload

- Most recent official academic transcript
An official transcript typically has "Official" noted within the document, whereas an unofficial transcript typically has "Unofficial" noted within the document. Submission of an unofficial transcript or class schedule will disqualify you.
- Letter of acceptance or proof of enrollment to the institution you plan to attend
If you are a new applicant, please upload a copy of your letter/email of acceptance to the institution you plan to attend. If you are selected to receive a scholarship from the Foundation, and the scholarship is not limited to specific institution(s), you may change your preferred institution by notifying the Foundation in writing. If you are currently enrolled in college or a renewal applicant, please upload proof of enrollment which may include a copy of your transcript, letter confirming enrollment or class schedule.
- 2016-2017 Student Aid Report (SAR Report) furnished by the U.S. Dept. of Education
Please complete your 2016-2017 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and then upload a copy of your Student Aid Report (SAR Report) furnished by the U.S. Department of Education. You may complete your FAFSA online at fafsa.ed.gov. After you submit your FAFSA online, you may log back into your FAFSA account and access your SAR Report 3-5 business days after submission of your online application. When you login your application status will display as "current application status processed successfully." At the bottom of the Welcome Screen you will see a blue link titled "Student Aid Report (PDF)." Please download this document, and then upload the Student Aid Report (PDF) into this scholarship question.
