

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
OF LOUISVILLE

FIELD OF INTEREST FUNDS

Created by generous donors to invest in specific issues that are important to them.

Funds in blue are used by the Foundation in support of its programs and initiatives. Funds in red are committed until 2023 - if your organization/program is eligible for one of the red funds, submit information here.

Affordable Housing Fund

Offers support to nonprofits that provide affordable housing for low-income individuals and families in Metro Louisville, including construction and foreclosure prevention programs.

The AIDS Project Fund

Provides grants to support HIV prevention, education, and testing.

Winston N. and Nancy H. Bloch Educational Fund

Created by Mary C. Jones in memory of her son and daughter-in-law to help children learn by providing schools with grants to support non-traditional classroom resources.

Boyette and Edna Edwards Fund

Established by the remainder of the Lucille E. Crosby Charitable Remainder Trust to honor her parents with annual grants that support the needs of children in Jefferson County.

George and Mary Alice Hadley Fund

Created by a transfer of assets in the Mary Alice Hadley Foundation to support the visual arts, crafts, theater, and the Louisville Free Public Library.

Historic Preservation Fund

Established by Edith S. Bingham to support the preservation of historic resources in Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Morris and Esther Lee Fund

Offers support to organizations that provide human services, excluding civic, conservation, arts, or religious organizations.

Dr. W. Barnett Owen Memorial Fund for the Children of Louisville & Jefferson County, Kentucky

Created by Dr. Albert P. Williams to honor the memory of Dr. W. Barnett Owen, a children's health care activist, by assisting the children of Louisville and Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Dennis Reker Fund

Supports community-building projects in historically disinvested neighborhoods in the Louisville area, with an emphasis on utilizing technology and increasing access to technology as a means to strengthen the sense of community.

Madi and Jim Tate Fund

Established by Terry "Madi" Tate to support the education of disadvantaged youth with priority given to Louisville's African American community.

T. Bert and Bertha Wilson Fund

Established by the remainder of the Lucille E. Crosby Charitable Remainder Trust to honor her great aunt and uncle with annual grants that support the arts and humanities, including, but not limited to, museums, music, theater, dance, painting, photography, and historic preservation.