

2023 Scholarship Opportunities

Thank you for your interest in scholarship opportunities offered through the Community Foundation of Louisville. Below you will find additional details pertaining to each scholarship fund at the Community Foundation. We are proud to provide opportunities for students to further their education and pursue their dreams. To apply, please visit our application platform at <https://cflouisville.awardspring.com/>.

If you have any questions, please contact Naomi Davis, the Scholarship Manager at the Community Foundation, by email at scholarships@cflouisville.org.

Please note that the term "Renewable" refers to whether or not the scholarship can be awarded for multiple years. However, a renewable scholarship is not necessarily guaranteed as the recipient must continue to meet the eligibility requirements (i.e. maintaining a certain GPA) from one year to the next.*

100 Black Men of Louisville Scholarship Fund

Description: The 100 Black Men of Louisville Scholarship Fund was established to provide annual scholarship awards to deserving matriculating full-time students at accredited, post-secondary institutions based on 100 Black Men of America, Inc. eligibility criteria. Scholarship dollars assist students in completing educational goals by providing resources to offset expenses associated with tuition, books, and housing.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact 100 Black Men of Louisville, Inc. by visiting 100bmol.org.

15,000 Degrees Scholarship Fund

Description: The 15,000 Degrees Scholarship Fund was established to actively engage and mobilize Louisville's African-American community in support of 55,000 Degrees - Greater Louisville's Education Commitment. 15,000 Degrees seeks to add 15,000 additional post-secondary degrees to Louisville's African-American community by 2020.

Eligibility: African-American descent; Demonstrate financial need; Plan to attend one of the following colleges/universities: University of Louisville, Bellarmine University, Sullivan University, Spalding University, Kentucky State University, Jefferson Community & Technical College, Simmons College of Kentucky, Indiana University Southeast, or Ivy Tech Community College (Sellersburg, IN campus).

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the 15,000 Degrees Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Amy and Steve Trager WES Scholarship Fund

Description: The Amy and Steve Trager WES Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of alumni from the West End School.

Eligibility: Alumni of West End School; Demonstrate financial need; Acceptance to secondary, post-secondary, or graduate educational institution.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Amy and Steve Trager WES Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Antoinette & Phillip Schuwey Scholarship Fund

Description: The Antoinette & Phillip Schuwey Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of first year nursing students who have excelled in academics and community involvement while overcoming adversities.

Eligibility: First-year nursing student, Enrolled full-time at Spalding, Bellarmine or the University of Louisville. Must be a resident in Jefferson, Oldham, Bullitt or Shelby County, in Kentucky; OR Clark, Harrison or Floyd County in Indiana. Demonstrated financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Antoinette & Phillip Schuwey Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Bill & Mary Brey Ag Scholarship Fund

Description: The Bill & Mary Brey Ag Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses for students graduating from high schools located in Owensboro or Daviess County, Kentucky.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from a high school in Owensboro or Daviess County, Kentucky; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Pursuing a degree in the area of agriculture (the science, art, and business of cultivating soil, producing crops, and raising livestock); Attending a college or university in Kentucky; Preference given to students of Trinity High School in Whitesville, Kentucky.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Bill & Mary Brey Ag Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

BOLD Promise Scholarship Fund

Description: The BOLD Promise Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses for students from Daviess County, Kentucky who will be attending a post-secondary educational institution. Moreover, the purpose of the Bold Promise Scholarship is to increase the population of the work ready community through attainment of certificates, diplomas, and degrees.

Eligibility: Daviess County, KY residents who either 1) left college in good standing with 12 or fewer credit hours needed for completion of a program of study or 2) have completed at least 24 credit hours and have a demonstrated need for assistance to complete their education. Eligible colleges/universities must be accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). The only exception will be for students who are attempting to complete a program not offered at a college or university located in Daviess County, Kentucky, in which case grants may be considered for completion at another regionally accredited institution.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the BOLD Promise Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Brandon Ray Tong Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Brandon Ray Tong Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray expenses of any full-time two-year or four-year college or university for a senior graduating from St. Francis DeSales High School in Jefferson County, Kentucky, who has been diagnosed with a learning difference or disability or who struggles with academics.

Eligibility and Application: For more information, please contact DeSales High School by visiting desaleshighschool.com/admissions/scholarships.

Renewable: No

Brian Jennemann Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Brian Jennemann Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by his family and friends to honor his life and commitment to helping others. Brian was a dedicated Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) with the Jefferson County Emergency Medical Services. Specifically, this fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray expenses of students attending the Certified Paramedic Training Program at Jefferson Community and Technical College.

Eligibility: Age 18 years or older; Accepted into the Certified Paramedic Training Program at JCTC; Certified Emergency Medical Technician (EMT); Demonstrates financial need; Completion of essay.

How to Apply: For more information, please visit <https://jefferson.kctcs.edu/affording-college/paying-for-college/scholarships/>.

Renewable: No

Brice Simpson Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Brice Simpson Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to honor Lt. Brice Simpson, Air Force. Brice was a student that showed exemplary traits as a soldier and a person. He was a student of the Fern Creek Junior Marine Corps ROTC program. He believed in honor, loyalty, integrity, and discipline. Specifically, this fund was designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses to an outstanding senior within a Junior Marine Corps ROTC unit.

Eligibility: Graduating senior; outstanding member of Junior Marine Corps ROTC program.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Brice Simpson Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Brigadier General Ronald R. Van Stockum Scholarship Fund

Description: The Brigadier General Ronald R. Van Stockum Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of a graduating high school senior from Shelby County High School Marine Corps JROTC unit who has the highest grade point average in all studies including the ROTC unit.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Shelby County High School; Member of the Marine Corps JROTC unit.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Brigadier General Ronald R. Van Stockum Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

BrightSpring Brighter Futures Scholarship Fund

Description: The BrightSpring Brighter Futures Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of underserved student populations.

Eligibility: Demonstrates financial need; Cumulative 3.0 GPA. Enrolled to attend an accredited nonprofit post-secondary educational institution.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the BrightSpring Brighter Futures Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

BrightSpring Hospice Nursing Scholarship Fund

Description: The BrightSpring Hospice Nursing Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of underserved student populations.

Eligibility: Demonstrates financial need; Cumulative 3.0 GPA. Enrolled to attend an accredited nonprofit post-secondary educational institution. Enrolled in Registered Nurse (RN) or Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) program.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the BrightSpring Hospice Nursing Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes – for one year.

Brown Quesenberry Scholarship Fund

Description: The Brown Quesenberry Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray tuition expenses of female graduates of Nativity Academy at St. Boniface to attend Sacred Heart Academy in Louisville, KY. Financial need is a consideration, but not required.

Eligibility and Application: For more information, please contact Nativity Academy.

Renewable: Yes

Charles A. Reid Memorial Scholarship Fund for Brescia University

Description: The Charles A. Reid Memorial Scholarship was established by Mrs. Marjorie Reid in loving memory of her husband. Mr. Reid was very involved in the Owensboro community and served on the Owensboro-Daviess County Community Foundation (currently the Green River Area Community Foundation) for several years. Mr. Reid was concerned about the Owensboro community, children's education, and particularly fond of Brescia University.

Eligibility: Resident of Kentucky; Graduating high school senior from any high school in Kentucky; Enrolled to attend Brescia University in the fall semester following graduation; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; preference given to applicants who demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Charles A. Reid Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Christine Jansing Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Christine Jansing Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to honor Ms. Jansing, who was a beloved teacher and counselor at Atherton High School. She taught chemistry and was an avid player of the violin and viola. Specifically, the fund was designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses for Atherton High School graduating seniors who excel in chemistry and classical stringed instruments. Each year, the selection committee shall select one student in each category to receive the scholarship awards.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Atherton High School in Louisville, KY; Enrolled to attend a college, university, or community college; Demonstrate excellence in chemistry and/or a classical stringed instrument.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Christine Jansing Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

C.L. Smith Scholarship Fund

Description: The C.L. Smith Scholarship Fund was established to honor Lieutenant Colonel Clarence L. Smith USMC (Ret.). Lt. Col. Smith was the first instructor of the Marine Corps Junior ROTC program at Fern Creek High School in Louisville, Kentucky. He was instrumental in building the program from its founding to a national accredited unit. In doing so, he established a standard based upon the principals of loyalty, integrity, and discipline.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Fern Creek High School in Louisville, Kentucky; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Member of the Junior Marine ROTC program; Enrolled at an accredited college, university, technical, or trade school on a full-time basis; demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the C.L. Smith Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Clair L. Hicks Food Science Fund

Description: The Clair L. Hicks Food Science Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance to help defray college or university expenses of students studying Food Science or food related programs. Food programs are defined as Food Science, Chemistry, Engineering, Microbiology, Food Industry, or Food Business. Preference is given to students attending institutions in Kentucky.

Eligibility: Student must be enrolled or entering as an undergraduate or an advanced degree program in the respective institution's food program in preparation for a career in the food industry; Cumulative GPA of 2.5.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Clair L. Hicks Food Science Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Clay V. & Jennie Ree Watson Scholarship Fund

Description: The Clay V. & Jennie Ree Watson Scholarship Fund was established to provide grants to help defray the post-secondary educational expenses for residents of McLean County, Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Watson both taught for many years and sought to support people in their county.

Eligibility: Resident of McLean County, Kentucky; Enrolled full-time to attend an accredited two or four-year college, university, or trade school; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Clay V. & Jennie Ree Watson Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Danny Sherman Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Danny Sherman Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by Mr. and Mrs. Sherman in memory of their son, Danny, who was an exceptional and active student at St. Albert the Great Parish School and St. Xavier High School. Specifically, this fund was designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray tuition expenses of graduates of St. Albert the Great Parish School to attend St. Xavier High School in Louisville, KY. Applicants should consult with St. Xavier's Athletic or Business Office to learn more information about participating in sanctioned KHSAA sports and how that may affect accepting the Danny Sherman Scholarship award.

Eligibility: Graduating eighth grade male students of St. Albert the Great Parish School who exhibit positive personal traits as well as academic achievement. Financial need is a consideration, but not a prerequisite.

How to Apply: For more information, please contact St. Albert the Great Parish School by visiting school.stalbert.org.

Renewable: No

Darcy Blair Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Darcy Blair Memorial Educational Fund was established by the family of Dr. Darcy Blair with the many contributions made by her teachers, patients, and friends who remembered her as someone who felt she had a responsibility to be a positive influence in the world. The fund had been conceptualized by Dr. Blair several years before she was diagnosed with cancer. She had written a plan to create an opportunity fund that would help young women pursue an interest in addition to their formal education, which would otherwise not be possible, such as extracurricular or life experience activities, travel, or studying a foreign language.

Eligibility: Female student; Completed at least the 7th grade; Preference given to individuals who clearly demonstrate a plan or commitment for a long-term goal; Applicants who are in secondary school should demonstrate merit and interest in short-term goals, which might lead to a career; Financial need is considered, but not necessary.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Darcy Blair Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

David Brown Vocal Music Scholarship Fund

Description: The David Brown Vocal Music Scholarship Fund was established by the DuPont Manual High School's faculty, staff, students, and their families in recognition and honor of Mr. Brown's retirement. Mr. Brown was the vocal teacher and founding choir director at the Youth Performing Arts School (YPAS) for 23 years.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from DuPont Manual High School; Member of the Youth Performing Arts School (YPAS) Concert Choir; Financial need may be considered, but is not a requirement; minimum 3.2 GPA; Conduct grade of B or above in Concert Choir; Demonstrated desire/dedication, and potential in vocal music; demonstrated leadership in Concert Choir (i.e. rehearsal leader, section leader, soloist)

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the David Brown Vocal Music Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

David C. & Emma W. Miles McElvaney Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The David C. & Emma W. Miles McElvaney Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide assistance to help defray college or university expenses of African-American students from any Jefferson County Public School.

Eligibility: African American student; Graduating senior from a Jefferson County Public School; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Enrolled to attend a four-year post-secondary educational institution; Preference given to applicants who will be the first in their family to attend college.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the David C. & Emma W. Miles McElvaney Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Denise Fleck Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Denise Fleck Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by her family to honor a courageous woman dedicated to the prevention and intervention of tobacco use by teens. Denise was instrumental in the implementation of the "Teens Against Tobacco Use" program in Kentucky and worked extensively with many health-related organizations. This scholarship fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students who are actively involved in community service activities for the prevention and intervention of tobacco use by their peers.

Eligibility: Resident of Kentucky; Actively involved with tobacco prevention programs or activities (ex: Teens Against Tobacco Use Program); Graduating senior from a high school in Kentucky; Cumulative 2.5 GPA and in good academic standing; Financial need will be considered, but is not a requirement.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Denise Fleck Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Doris F. Schneider Scholarship for Women

Description: The Doris F. Schneider Scholarship for Women was established by Ellen Schneider in honor of her mother, Doris F. Schneider, a lifelong proponent of women's education and reproductive rights. The fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of women pursuing college educations.

Eligibility: Female; Demonstrate financial need; Accepted to non-profit post-secondary educational institution; 3.0 GPA.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Doris F. Schneider Scholarship for Women, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Doris Owen Bickel Charitable Endowment Fund

Description: The Doris Owen Bickel Charitable Endowment Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students who demonstrate talent, accomplishment, and financial need, and are enrolled in the University of Louisville's School of Music studying Classical Music.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the University of Louisville's School of Music by visiting louisville.edu/music.

Dorothy P. King Charitable Endowment for Dance

Description: The Dorothy P. King Charitable Endowment for Dance was established to honor the memory of Dorothy Powell King, who was a model, realtor, bookkeeper, and dancer. She danced throughout her lifetime, beginning with ballet as a child and continuing with ballroom dancing into her later years. Specifically, this fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray tuition and related expenses of dance students from the Youth Performing Arts School in Louisville, Kentucky, who have been accepted and will be attending a summer dance program or dance conservatory.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact Youth Performing Arts School Counselor Jasmine P. Romans at jasmine.romans@jefferson.kyschools.us.

Dr. Hugh Williams Traveling Scholarship Fund

Description: The Dr. Hugh Williams Traveling Scholarship Fund was designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to surgical residents at the University of Louisville to receive additional training in their specialties anywhere in the United States or abroad.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: Please visit the University of Louisville's Department of Surgery at www.louisvillesurgery.com.

Dr. L.L. Cull Health Care Scholarship Fund

Description: The Dr. LL Cull Health Care Scholarship Fund was established by Alice Ann Cull Sanders in memory of her father. This fund provides assistance to graduating seniors from Franklin County public high schools who have chosen a career in the health care field.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior from a Franklin County public high school; Chosen a career in any area of the health care field (for example, but not limited to, x-ray technician, doctor, speech pathology, or any level of nursing training); Demonstrate good character and sufficient academic aptitude to indicate a probability of success in their chosen field.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Dr. L.L. Cull Health Care Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Dr. Lynn Wagner Scholarship Fund

Description: Dr. Lynn Koch Wagner's passion was history and teaching history. She was a Louisville native and Southern High School graduate, who went on to earn multiple degrees in history at Morehead State College and her Doctorate of Education at the University of Louisville. Dr. Wagner taught for more than thirty years at the University of Louisville, Bellarmine University, and Jefferson Community College. Her sister and brother-in-law, Elise and Dann Stevens, along with Dr. Wagner's brothers, sisters-in-law, nieces, and nephews, are creating this scholarship to honor her lifetime commitment to education and in the hopes of assisting other promising students in Jefferson County, Kentucky. Specifically, this Fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students pursuing a college education.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior in Jefferson County, Kentucky, with a preference for Southern High School; Interest in pursuing a career in education; Student will be required to complete an essay explaining their interest in pursuing a career in education.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Dr. Lynn Wagner Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Dunaway Scholarship Fund

Description: The Dunaway Scholarship Fund was established in 2004 by Samuel M. Dunaway to provide educational grants to graduating seniors from any high school located in Breckinridge, Butler, Edmonson, Grayson, Hancock, and Ohio Counties in Kentucky. The scholarship is based on financial need and recipients will be selected on their determination and ability to successfully complete the degree and/or education program to which they are enrolled.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior; Resident of Breckenridge, Butler, Edmonson, Grayson, Hancock, or Ohio Counties in KY; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Dunaway Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

DuPont Manual High School Scholarship Fund

Description: The DuPont Manual High School Scholarship Fund was established by an anonymous alum, who attended both DuPont Manual High School and the University of Louisville.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from DuPont Manual High School; Cumulative 2.75 GPA; Attending the University of Louisville following high school graduation.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the DuPont Manual High School Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Dwight Wright Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Dwight Wright Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of a graduate of Washington County High School in Springfield, KY.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact Washington County High School Counseling Department at 859-336-5475.

Eastern High School Class of 1955 Scholarship Fund

Description: The Eastern High School Class of 1955 Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance to help defray college and university expenses of graduating seniors from Eastern High School in Louisville, KY.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Eastern High School in Louisville, KY; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Demonstrate leadership abilities in community service, co-curricular or extracurricular activities; Financial need will be considered, but is not a requirement.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Eastern High School Class of 1955 Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Edward E. & Beverley H. McDonald Scholarship Fund

Description: The Edward E. & Beverley H. McDonald Scholarship Fund was established by Mrs. Beverley H. McDonald of Nicholasville, KY, to provide scholarship assistance to graduating seniors from Bryan Station High School, Lafayette High School, or Tates Creek High School in Lexington, KY, or any high school located in Jessamine County, KY.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Bryan Station High School, Lafayette High School, or Tates Creek High School in Lexington, KY; or any high school located in Jessamine County, KY; Enrolled to attend a recognized college, university, or junior college; Cumulative 2.0 GPA; Employment experience for the two most recent years of high school; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Edward E. & Beverley H. McDonald Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Ellen Morris Buchart Nursing Scholarship Fund

Description: The Ellen Morris Buchart Nursing Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students in their last year of study in the nursing program at Bellarmine University in Louisville, KY. Ellen Morris Buchart was a nurse who dedicated her professional life to improving the health of the citizens of Jefferson County, KY.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the Donna and Allan Lansing School of Nursing and Clinical Sciences by visiting www.bellarmino.edu/lansing.

Flat Branch Farms Agriculture Scholarship

Description: The Flat Branch Farms Agriculture Scholarship was established to provide scholarship assistance to graduating high school seniors from McLean County High School and Madisonville-North Hopkins High School who are looking to pursue a degree in Agriculture.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior from McLean County High School or Madisonville-North Hopkins High School; Resident (minimum of 2 years) of McLean or Hopkins County, KY; Cumulative 2.75 GPA; Member of Future Farmers of America; Pursuing a degree in Agriculture.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Flat Branch Farms Agriculture Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Garland & Thelma May Scholarship Fund

Description: The Garland & Thelma May Scholarship Fund was established by Mr. Garland May of Harrodsburg, KY to provide scholarship assistance to deserving students from Mercer County, KY in order to advance the recipient's skills or educational level. Preference given to applicants attending a Kentucky college or university.

Eligibility: Resident of Mercer County, KY; Academic competence; Demonstrate financial need;

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Garland & Thelma May Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

George & Georgella Geile Scholarship Fund

Description: The George & Georgella Geile Scholarship Fund was established by Kathleen Geile to honor the memory of her parents. George Geile, a navy veteran and survivor of the attack on Pearl Harbor, was an electrician by trade. Georgella Geile was a homemaker with an appreciation for the arts. Both placed great emphasis on an education and its role in a person's development. The George and Georgella Scholarship Fund provides scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray post-secondary educational expenses of students from outside North America who attend Spalding University.

Eligibility: Enrolled to attend Spalding University as a full-time student; Citizen of a country outside North America; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the George & Georgella Geile Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Harland Scholarship Fund

Description: The Harland Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance to help defray college or university expenses of Jefferson County, KY students from underserved populations and first generation college students.

Eligibility: Jefferson County (KY) students attending or planning to attend an accredited college, university, community college, technical or vocational school; Demonstrated Financial Need; Minimum 2.3 GPA and a determination to succeed in their chosen course of study. Preference will be given to students from underserved populations and first-generation college students.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Harland Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No, but students will be eligible to reapply each year.

Harold & Mary Snook Scholarship Fund

Description: The Harold & Mary Snook Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance to help defray technical or trade school, college or university expenses of students in financial need who are pursuing studies in education or any medical field, with preference to those studying nursing. Students who do not have a GPA or test score that are believed to be reflective of their skills and ability are asked to provide an explanation in the form of an essay.

Eligibility: Demonstrate financial need and pursuing a degree in education or medical field. Preference is given to those studying nursing.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Harold & Mary Snook Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Harriet Poynter Scholarship Fund

Description: The Harriet Poynter Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance to help defray college or university expenses of a graduating senior from Shelby County, KY who is of African American heritage.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Shelby County, KY; African American.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Harriet Poynter Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Harriet Poynter Musician Scholarship Fund

Description: The Harriet Poynter Musician Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance to help defray college or university expenses of a graduating senior from Shelby County who has a passion for music.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Shelby County, KY; pursuing a degree in Music.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Harriet Poynter Musician Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Harry Isaac Shrader Scholarship Fund

Description: The Harry Isaac Shrader Scholarship Fund was established by a bequest from Harry Isaac Shrader to The Temple, Congregation Adath Israel Brith Sholom. Mr. Shrader had a great interest in the education of Jewish students.

Eligibility: Jewish faith; Enrolled to attend an accredited college, university, junior college, or community college; Seeking undergraduate degree on a full-time basis; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Harry Isaac Shrader Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Helen "Heidi" Badgett Scholarship Fund

Description: The Helen "Heidi" Badgett Scholarship Fund was established to provide financial assistance to re-entry adults who are returning to college after a period away from school or students graduating from high school or college seeking to further their academic, professional, or career training. Grants will be awarded to applicants with limited financial means who have a strong desire to further their education and demonstrate sufficient academic promise to complete their course of study.

Eligibility: Resident of Hopkins County, KY; Enrolled/attend a college or university on a full-time basis; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Helen "Heidi" Badgett Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Henry V. Heuser, Jr. YMCA Youth Character Award Scholarship

Description: The Henry V. Heuser, Jr. YMCA Youth Character Award Scholarship was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college, university, vocational, technical, post-secondary courses, or other such training expenses that would help students who receive the YMCA Youth Character Award as recognized by the YMCA of Greater Louisville. Recipients should attain a baccalaureate degree or sustain/expand their employability. Awards are presented to teens, 13-17 years of age, who demonstrate the character values of the YMCA: Caring, Honesty, Respect, and Responsibility.

Eligibility and Application: For more information, please contact the YMCA of Greater Louisville by visiting ymcalouisville.org/character-awards.

Renewable: No

H.L. Lyons III Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The H.L. Lyons III Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide assistance to help defray expenses for vocational and/or technical post-secondary educational courses or other such training that would help the recipient attain, sustain, or expand their employability by learning new technical skills or trades. Applicants must have experience working in a technical trade, vocation, or manufacturing job, or demonstrate an aptitude for a technical trade and/or vocation.

Eligibility: Have at least a high school diploma or GED certificate; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Age 18 or above; Resident of Jefferson, Shelby, Oldham, or Bullitt Counties in Kentucky/Clark and Floyd Counties in Indiana; Enrolled to attend a post-secondary institution, an accredited vocational, or technical program; Financial need is a consideration, but is not a requirement; Preference given to those currently employed in the manufacturing field, or has a parent who is currently employed by a manufacturing company.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the H.L. Lyons III Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Howard Hill Memorial Eagle Scout Scholarship Fund

Description: The Howard Hill Memorial Eagle Scout Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of graduating high school senior boys who are current Boy Scouts in Shelby County, KY, with a preference to those who have attained the ranking of Eagle Scout.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact Richard Walker at RFWalker3@twc.com with the subject heading Eagle Scout Application.

J. Clinton Foshee Scholarship Fund

Description: The J. Clinton Foshee Scholarship Fund was established to support outstanding graduating seniors at Billingsley High School in Billingsley, Alabama. Applicants must be in good academic standing and enrolled to attend Vanderbilt University or a college/university in Alabama.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior at Billingsley High School in Billingsley, AL; Good academic standing; Enrolled to attend Vanderbilt University or a college/university in Alabama.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the J. Clinton Foshee Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

J. Rose Scholarship Fund

Description: The J. Rose Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray expenses for college, university, vocational, or trade schools; or expenses related to professional certificate programs of English as a Second Language (ESL) students graduating from a Jefferson County Public High School.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from a Jefferson County Public High School; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; A history of volunteering or engaging in service projects in the community; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: For more information, please contact Justin Maston at Justin.Maston@jefferson.kyschools.us.

Renewable: No

Jack Freeman Scholarship Fund

Description: The Jack Freeman Scholarship Fund was established by bequest from Dr. Freeman to help deserving graduating seniors from any high school located in Boyle County, KY.

Eligibility: Resident of Boyle County, KY; Graduating senior from Boyle County High School, Danville High School, Danville Christian Academy, or Kentucky School for the Deaf; Pursuing an undergraduate degree at an accredited college, university, or community college; Cumulative 3.0 GPA and in good academic standing; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Jack Freeman Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

James I. and Rodman Hayes Wimsatt Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The James I. and Rodman Hayes Wimsatt Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students who reside in Washington, Marion, and Nelson Counties, KY who will be attending Centre College.

Eligibility and Application: For more information, please contact the Financial Aid department at Centre College by visiting centre.edu/aid.

Renewable: Yes

James W. Hardaway Memorial Scholarship Fund of First Harrison Bank

Description: The James W. Hardaway Memorial Scholarship Fund of First Harrison Bank was established by a bequest made in memory of James W. Hardaway, who served the bank for over 58 years. Specifically, this fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students graduating from high schools in Bullitt County, KY.

Eligibility: Student, parent(s), or guardian must be an active checking account customer of First Harrison Bank of Bullitt County for at least one year prior to the student's high school graduation; Graduating seniors from a Bullitt County, KY high school.

Application: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the James W. Hardaway Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

JCPS Employee Sponsored Student Scholarship Fund

Description: The JCPS Employee Sponsored Student Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray expenses of disadvantaged students graduating from any public high school in Jefferson County that is managed, controlled, and governed by the Jefferson County Board of Education and attending a college, university, or post-secondary educational institution.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from a JCPS high school in Jefferson County, KY; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the JCPS Employee Sponsored Student Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Jennifer Zimlich Memorial Scholarship Fund for Assumption High School

Description: The Jennifer Zimlich Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by Mr. and Mrs. Zimlich in memory of their daughter. This scholarship is designed to reward an average student at Assumption High School in Louisville, KY who enjoys the visual arts, especially photography.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Assumption High School in Louisville, KY; Demonstrate proficiency or an interest in the arts (a variety of mediums); Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Enrolled to attend a college, university, or community college.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Jennifer Zimlich Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Jenny Caldwell Ford and Marguerite Geneva Ford Scholarship

Description: The Jenny Caldwell Ford and Marguerite Geneva Ford Scholarship was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray medical school tuition expenses of students at the University of Kentucky's College of Medicine. Preference is given to female applicants who are residents of Kentucky.

Eligibility, Application, Renewability: For more information, please contact the University of Kentucky's College of Medicine by visiting med.uky.edu.

John E. Brown Scholarship Fund

Description: The John E. Brown Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college expenses for accounting students at the University of Louisville and Bellarmine University.

Eligibility, Application, Renewability: For more information, please contact the University of Louisville accounting department by visiting business.louisville.edu/accountancy/ or the Bellarmine University accounting department by visiting bellarmine.edu/business/accounting/.

Keaton Hall Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Keaton Hall Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by his family and friends to honor his memory by awarding an annual scholarship of $2,500 to a deserving student athlete from Bardstown High School. During his time at Bardstown, Keaton lettered in basketball, baseball, golf, and football, ultimately being named most outstanding senior male athlete. Keaton continued on to the University of Kentucky where he graduated with a degree in Economics.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Bardstown High School in Bardstown, KY; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Student athlete; Demonstrates financial need.

Application and Renewability: Please contact Bardstown High School by calling 502-331-8802.

Keep Going Scholarship Fund in Honor of Travis Nagdy

Description: The Keep Going Scholarship Fund was established by Cities United, incubating partner of Russell: A Place of Promise, and Youth Resistance Collective LC, a Kentucky limited liability nonprofit company, utilizing a grant from the Public Welfare Fund, a component fund of the Foundation, intend for this Fund to honor the life of Travis Nagdy, a 21 year-old social justice leader in Louisville who lost his life in late 2020. Travis was beloved by the community. His optimism and motivational activism, highlighted in his signature motto "Keep Going!" was vital to the social justice uprisings in Louisville and across the country in 2020. This scholarship recognizes his fight for justice and the continued pursuit of justice by Louisville youth. Specifically, this Fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of black students from West Louisville, Kentucky.

Eligibility: Resident of West Louisville; Black student 17-24 years old; Enrolled to attend a post-secondary, nonprofit educational institution; Demonstrated interest and/or pursuit of social justice and advocacy.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Keep Going Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Laura Lea Sipes Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Laura Lea Sipes Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by her mother, Barbara, to honor her daughter's passion for life. Laura received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from the University of Louisville and was taking additional courses to become a paralegal. Unfortunately, Laura's life was cut short by several brain tumors. This scholarship will provide grants to residents of Jefferson County, KY who have overcome an obstacle in life.

Eligibility: Resident of Jefferson County, KY; Preference given to female students; Cumulative 2.7 GPA; Enrolled to attend an accredited college, university, junior college, technical, or vocational school; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Laura Lea Sipes Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Leon & Helen Ennis Scholarship Fund

Description: The Leon & Helen Ennis Scholarship Fund was established by the Youngers Creek Baptist Church to honor two long-time, active members. This fund provides scholarship assistance to help defray the cost of college or university expenses.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior, college/university student, or returning adult who is a member (or the child of a member) of Youngers Creek Baptist Church in Elizabethtown, KY; Cumulative 2.5 GPA.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Leon & Helen Ennis Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Lisa M. Quesenberry Scholarship Fund

Description: The Lisa M. Quesenberry Scholarship Fund was established by Irvin and Mary Ann Quesenberry and Kathryn Quesenberry to memorialize the accomplishments of their daughter and sister, Lisa M. Quesenberry. The scholarship is designed to provide research or study awards to motivated graduate students. This grant will cover necessary research expenses related to the proposed research. This may include support for per diem subsistence and travel to locations where the proposed research will be carried out, and hourly wages for research assistance of limited duration. Limited support for supplies and equipment is also applicable under special circumstances.

Eligibility: Graduate student who is overcoming significant personal hurdles to pursue their education; Preference given to female students studying psychology at Vanderbilt University.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Lisa M. Quesenberry Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Lloyd and Nancy Clark Scholarship Fund

Description: The Lloyd and Nancy Clark Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray university expenses for women attending the University of Louisville's School of Dentistry.

Eligibility, Application and Renewability: For more information, please contact the University of Louisville's School of Dentistry by visiting <http://louisville.edu/dentistry/>.

Louis B. Payne Scholarship Fund

Description: The Louis B. Payne Scholarship Fund was established by the Falls City Pork Producers Association to support an outstanding graduating senior from Oldham, Shelby, or Henry Counties in Kentucky, to advance their education.

Eligibility: Resident of Oldham, Shelby, or Henry Counties in Kentucky; Graduating high school senior; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Preference given to those pursuing agricultural studies; Demonstrate financial need; Enrolled full-time.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Louis B. Payne Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Louisville Advertising Education Foundation

Description: The Louisville Advertising Education Foundation fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of area college students majoring in advertising related programs.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the American Advertising Federation – Louisville by visiting aafloouisville.org/students/aaf-scholarships.

Louisville Artisans Guild Art Scholarship

Description: The Louisville Artisans Guild Art Scholarship is a one-time award of $2,000.00 made available to a graduating senior who plans to pursue a college degree in non-performing visual arts. The scholarship recipient will also be awarded a one-year free membership to Louisville Artisans Guild. Applicants must submit five images (jpg) that best represent their portfolio.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior; Minimum 2.0 GPA; Pursuing a college degree in non-performing visual arts; Resident of Jefferson, Oldham, Shelby, and Bullitt Counties in Kentucky, or Floyd, Clark, and Harrison Counties in Indiana.

How to Apply: The Louisville Artisans Guild Art Scholarship Application will open November 14, 2022 and close February 15, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Major Allen Broussard Scholarship Fund

Description: The Major Allen Broussard Scholarship Fund was established in honor of Major Allen Broussard, who served as the Senior Marine Instructor of the Fern Creek High School Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps for over 18 years. The fund was founded by a group of Fern Creek High School graduates for whom Major Broussard was not just a teacher but a mentor. The fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray vocational, trade, college, or university expenses of Fern Creek High School graduates who have participated in the Marine Corps Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps ("JROTC") and demonstrated exceptional leadership and citizenship qualities.

Eligibility: Demonstrated leadership and citizenship as evidenced by community service, leadership roles in school, clubs, or other organizations; 2.5 GPA; Essay response to question regarding how the values learned in JROTC will serve the student in life; Successful completion of at least three years in the Fern Creek High School Marine Corps JROTC (which may include JROTC at other high schools should the student be a transfer).

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Major Allen Broussard Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Marcus Stubbs Scholarship Fund

Description: The Marcus Stubbs Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of graduating high school seniors, who have received services from Volunteers of America, to attend any accredited, non-profit higher education institution in Kentucky.

Eligibility: Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Demonstrate financial need; Resident of Kentucky, with a preference for those in Jefferson County; must be enrolled full-time in an accredited, non-profit higher education institution.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Major Allen Broussard Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Margaret & Lee Thomas Scholarship Fund

Description: The Margaret and Lee Thomas Scholarship Fund provides scholarships to residents of Jefferson County, KY who are attending or planning to attend undergraduate or graduate programs at an accredited college or university.

Eligibility: Resident of Jefferson County, KY; Enrolled as a full-time student; Cumulative 2.8 GPA; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Margaret & Lee Thomas Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Marian Kincaid Warns & Carl A. Warns, Jr. Scholarship Fund

Description: The Marian Kincaid Warns & Carl A. Warns, Jr. Scholarship Fund was established by Dr. Marian Kincaid Warns to provide grants to help defray the law school expenses of students currently enrolled at the Brandeis School of Law at the University of Louisville in Louisville, KY.

Eligibility: A student currently enrolled at the Brandeis School of Law at the University of Louisville who has completed at least one year of full-time coursework or its equivalent; Cumulative 3.0 GPA in all courses pertaining to labor and employment law; Demonstrate financial need; Preference given to applicants who (1) demonstrate an intention to pursue a career in labor or employment law, or (2) despite a physical disability (ex: loss of vision, hearing or mobility impairment, etc.), is pursuing a career in law.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Marian Kincaid Warns & Carl A. Warns, Jr. Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Mary Belle Bloch Scholarship Fund

Description: The Mary Belle Bloch Scholarship Fund was established by Mrs. Mary C. Jones in honor of her daughter, Mary Belle Bloch, Collegiate Class of 1966 and an accomplished environmentalist. This award is given to a senior female student who demonstrates a special dedication to, and competence in, the natural sciences, and who intends to continue science studies in college.

Eligibility: Senior female student attending Louisville Collegiate School; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Intend to further studies in science at a college level; Financial need will be considered, but is not a requirement.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Mary Belle Bloch Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Mary Elizabeth and Angela Fuchs Fund

Description: The Mary Elizabeth and Angela Fuchs Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to students attending Presentation Academy.

Eligibility, Application and Renewability: For more information, please contact Presentation Academy by visiting their website at presentationacademy.org.

Mary Elizabeth Eschels Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Mary Elizabeth Eschels Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to female students graduating from Ballard High School who have a demonstrated interest in mathematics, as evidenced by completion of accounting or higher level math classes. A minimum 3.0 GPA is required and students will be asked to complete an essay detailing "How will mathematics be important in your future education and career?"

Eligibility, Application and Renewability: For more information, please contact Ballard High School by visiting their website at <https://schools.jefferson.kyschools.us/high/Ballard/index.html>.

Mary Kay Olson Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Mary Kay Olson Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by John P. Olson in honor of his sister, Mary Kay Olson, who graduated from Grand Blanc High School in 1962 as class valedictorian, obtained an undergraduate degree in math and science, and had a 35-year career at IBM. Specifically, the fund provides scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of female students graduating from Grand Blanc High School in Grand Blanc, Michigan, who intend to pursue careers in math, science, engineering, or technology.

Eligibility: Graduating female senior from Grand Blanc High School in Grand Blanc, MI; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Enrolled in a college or university to pursue a career in math, science, engineering, or technology.

How to Apply: For more information, please contact the counseling department at Grand Blanc High School at 810-591-6671.

Renewable: No

Mason Family Foundation Scholarship Fund

Description: The Mason Family Foundation Scholarship Fund was established by Ann Mason Scott, a descendent of one of the founders of Lewisport, KY, to assist graduating high school students in Hancock County who, without financial support, would not be able to pursue a post-secondary form of education.

Eligibility: Resident of Hancock County, KY; Graduating senior from a school in Hancock County, KY; Cumulative 3.5 GPA; Actively involved in community service.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Mason Family Foundation Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

MG Benjamin J. Butler "Century Division" Scholarship Fund

Description: The MG Benjamin J. Butler "Century Division" Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses for selected eligible persons belonging to a class composed of active, retired, or former members of the United States Army's 100th Infantry Division or any of its successor designations, including, but not limited to, the 100th Division (Institutional Training), or direct lineal descendants of active, retired, or former members of the 100th Infantry Division or the 100th Division (Institutional Training) or any of their successor designations.

Eligibility, Application and Renewability: For more information, please contact Janie Diamond at diamond.janie@gmail.com.

M-H Tuggle Scholarship Fund

Description: The M-H Tuggle Scholarship Fund was established by the descendants of Charles Tuggle, a slave freed by his owner in 1861. This fund is to assist a young person in need that is attending or wishes to attend an institution of higher learning.

Eligibility: Resident of Jefferson County, KY; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Demonstrate financial need; Preference given to African American students.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the M-H Tuggle Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

National Council of Jewish Women Scholarship Fund

Description: The National Council of Jewish Women Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students who are of Jewish faith.

Eligibility: Jewish faith; Resident of Kentucky; Student must have completed at least one semester of college or university; Cumulative college GPA of at least 2.5. Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the National Council of Jewish Women Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

National Lincoln Institute Alumni Scholarship Fund

Description: The National Lincoln Institute Alumni Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college, university, or vocational school expenses of students who are family members of Lincoln Institute alumni. The Lincoln Institute, or the Lincoln Ridge Kentucky Historical High School Institution for African Americans, was a school in Simpsonville, Kentucky, that operated from 1912-1966. Its alumni created and administered the predecessor to this scholarship, enabling scores of young people to pursue higher education, prior to ultimately establishing this Lincoln Institute of Kentucky Alumni Association Scholarship Fund. This fund is not connected to, nor in any manner is controlled by, the Lincoln Foundation.

Eligibility: Family member who is a Lincoln Institute Alumnus; Resident of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana or Illinois; Demonstrated financial need; and minimum 2.5 GPA.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the National Council of Jewish Women Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Nellie Mathews Meyer Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Nellie Mathews Meyer Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of music-oriented students graduating from Louisville Male High School with a minimum 2.5 GPA and financial need.

Eligibility, Application and Renewability: For more information, please contact Louisville Male High School.

Paul and Sarah Puckett Scholarship Fund

Description: The Paul and Sarah Puckett Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students who meet each of the following criteria: high school students residing in Floyd, Harrison, or Clark County, IN, or Hart or Bullitt County, KY, who are either home schooled or who attended traditional school; OR students residing in Jefferson County, KY who are home schooled.

Eligibility: High school students residing in Floyd, Harrison, or Clark County, IN, or Hart or Bullitt County, KY, who are either home schooled or who attended traditional school; OR students residing in Jefferson County, KY who are home schooled; Cumulative GPA of 3.0; ACT score of at least a 24 or at least a 1050 total score on SAT; Students not currently receiving a state-sponsored scholarship; Involvement in extracurricular, community, and/or church activities.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Paul and Sarah Puckett Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Pat Mickle Scholarship Fund

Description: The Pat Mickle Scholarship Fund was established to provide distributions to the Hopkins County Education Foundation to support scholarship and educational goals.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the Hopkins County Education Foundation by visiting hopkins.kyschools.us.

Peggy Davis Scholarship Fund

Description: The Peggy Davis Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarships to female students from Boyd, Carter, or Greenup County in Kentucky. Peggy Davis was a devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, and friend. She saw value in every single person she met. Peggy consistently offered kind words and honest, loving advice to those she met in need of such attention. This scholarship will honor Peggy by taking a holistic approach to find promising recipients from the Ashland, Kentucky area as diverse as Peggy's circle of loved ones and sphere of influence. Peggy was a high achieving student but knew there was more to a person than good grades and scores.

Eligibility: Graduating senior or continuing student who is a resident of Boyd, Carter or Greenup counties; demonstrate financial need, and a GPA of at least 2.7. Student's application should evidence a superior work ethic, maturity and ability to succeed in their chosen field.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Percy White Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Percy White Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Percy White Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 1989 by Mr. Abner T. White in memory of his father, a lifelong citizen of Cadiz, KY, who envisioned and built the city's first telephone system and first electric utility. Selection is based on character, citizenship, and academic potential.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Trigg County High School; Enrolled as a full-time student at an accredited college or university; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Percy White Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Pleasure Ridge Park High School Alumni Scholarship Fund

Description: The Pleasure Ridge Park High School Alumni Scholarship Fund was established by the PRP High School Alumni Association to support graduating high school seniors from PRP High School.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior from PRP High School in Louisville, KY; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Involvement in extracurricular activities and/or employment experience; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Pleasure Ridge Park High School Alumni Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Portland Promise Center Scholarship Fund

Description: The Portland Promise Center Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray post-high school education expenses for residents of Portland.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the Portland Promise Center by visiting portlandpromise.org.

Rachel Caroline Baker Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Rachel Caroline Baker Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by Dr. and Mrs. William T. Baker in memory of their daughter to support post-secondary academic study for a graduating female student, who plays field hockey for DuPont Manual High School.

Eligibility: Graduating female field hockey athlete attending DuPont Manual High School; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Exhibit attributes of sportsmanship, extracurricular involvement, and academic excellence; Financial need will be considered, but is not a requirement.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Rachel Caroline Baker Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Republic Bank Foundation Scholarship Fund

Description: The Republic Bank Foundation Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of high school graduates who are dependents of Republic Bank & Trust Company employees.

Eligibility: Dependents of Republic Bank & Trust Company employees; 3.0 GPA.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Republic Bank Foundation Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Restaurant Supply Chain Solutions Scholarship Fund

Description: The Restaurant Supply Chain Solutions Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of children whose parent or guardian is an active employee of Restaurant Supply Chain Solutions.

Eligibility and Application: For more information, please contact Restaurant Supply Chain Solutions by visiting rscs.com.

Renewable: Yes

Robert E. Haire Scholarship Fund

Description: The Robert E. Haire Scholarship Fund was established to honor Mr. Robert E. Haire, who taught Advanced Placement History at Eastern High School and Fern Creek High School in Louisville, KY. Specifically, the fund was designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses for graduating seniors from Eastern High School and/or Fern Creek High School, who excelled in Advance Placement History class or/or on the Advanced Placement History Test.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Fern Creek or Eastern High School in Louisville, KY; Enrolled to attend a college, university, or community college; demonstrate excellence in history, especially in AP History and/or the AP History test; Minimum 3.0 GPA.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Robert E. Haire Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Ron and Cynthia Rigby Fund

Description: The Ron and Cynthia Rigby Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses for students attending the University of Rochester in Rochester, New York.

Eligibility: Enrolled as an undergraduate student at the University of Rochester; Demonstrate financial need; Resident of the state of Kentucky, or live in a rural area.

How to Apply: For more information, please contact the Financial Aid & Scholarships Department at the University of Rochester by visiting enrollment.rochester.edu/financial-aid/.

Renewable: Yes

Rowland Family Scholarship Fund

Description: The Rowland Family Scholarship Fund was established by Mr. C. B. Rowland of Harrodsburg, KY, to support post-secondary education for students from Anderson, Boyle, Garrard, Lincoln, or Mercer Counties in Kentucky. Scholarship assistance will be grants to qualified students to attend any university, college, community college, proprietary school, vocational school, or any course of study that will advance the student's educational or skill attainment beyond the secondary school level.

Eligibility: Resident of Anderson, Boyle, Garrard, Lincoln, or Mercer Counties in Kentucky; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Enrolled as a full-time student at any university, college, community college, proprietary school, vocational school, or any course of study that will advance the student's educational or skill attainment beyond the secondary school level; Demonstrate financial need; Preference given to students who are either former employees of Harrods Cleaners, Inc. or RV Cablevision, or their children.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Rowland Family Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Rubbertown-Shively Class Scholarship Fund

Description: The Rubbertown-Shively Class Scholarship Fund was established in 2009 by E.I. DuPont de Nemours & Co., Inc. and DuPont Performance Elastomers, LLC as the result of a class action legal settlement. The fund provides scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray the education expenses of persons who reside at an address located within a two-mile radius centered at 4200 Camp Ground Road, Louisville KY - the local plant of E.I. DuPont de Nemours & Co.

Eligibility: Residents of the geographic area in which the address is located within a two-mile radius centered at 4200 Camp Ground Road, Louisville, KY; High school graduate or have a GED.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Rubbertown-Shively Class Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Samuel D. Hinkle IV Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Samuel D. Hinkle IV Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students graduating from Shelby County High School in Shelby County, KY.

Eligibility: Graduating senior at Shelby County High School in Shelby County, KY; 3.25 GPA; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: For more information, please contact Shelby County High School by visiting shelby.kyschools.us.

Renewable: Yes

Sarah Marcole Miller Scholarship Fund

Description: The Sarah Marcole Miller Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of students graduating from DuPont Manual High School in Louisville, KY. Ms. Miller was an accomplished student and athlete and became a beloved and respected Physical Education, Health and Wellness teacher at Manual High School. This scholarship created by her family in her honor, will assist student similarly interested in health, wellness and physical education careers.

Eligibility: Graduating senior at DuPont Manual High School in Jefferson County, KY; minimum 3.0 GPA; Pursuing a degree in physical education, health and/or wellness.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Sarah Marcole Miller Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Scott and Ruth Holder Scholarship Fund

Description: The Scott and Ruth Holder Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray tuition expenses of students at Brescia University and Kentucky Wesleyan College, both of Owensboro, KY. Annual distributions from the fund shall be equally divided between the two institutions.

Eligibility: Student at Brescia University or Kentucky Wesleyan College; Resident of Daviess County for at least three years preceding application; Preference given to African American students, but members of other racial and ethnic minorities may be considered.

How to Apply: If a student at Brescia University, please visit www.brescia.edu/academic-scholarships/. If a student at Kentucky Wesleyan College, please visit kwc.edu/admissions/financial-aid/scholarships/.

Renewable: No

Sharon D. & Robert O. Harris III Fund

Description: The Sharon D. & Robert O. Harris III Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray tuition expenses of students at the University of Louisville's School of Nursing.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the University of Louisville's School of Nursing by visiting louisville.edu/nursing.

Shawnee High School Class of 1954 Scholarship Fund

Description: The Shawnee High School Class of 1954 Scholarship Fund was established to provide support to the Academy @ Shawnee for scholarships.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the Academy @ Shawnee by visiting jefferson.kyschools.us/schools/profiles/academy-shawnee.

Steve Hughes Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Steve Hughes Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 1997 by Judy Hughes to provide scholarship assistance to residents of Daviess County, KY who are graduating seniors of Owensboro High School. Steve Hughes spent 30 years working in the Owensboro Independent School system, where he started his career as a teacher and was appointed assistant superintendent just before his death.

Eligibility: Resident of Daviess County; Graduating senior from Owensboro High School in Owensboro, KY; Enrolled to attend a community college, college, or university; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Steve Hughes Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Susanne de Charette Van Stockum Scholarship Fund

Description: The Susanne de Charette Van Stockum Scholarship Fund was established to honor Mrs. Van Stockum. This fund provides scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of an outstanding French language student at Shelby County High School in Shelbyville, KY.

Eligibility: Graduating senior who studied French from Shelby County High School in Shelbyville, KY; Enrolled at an accredited college or university.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Susanne de Charette Van Stockum Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Tariq Farmer Armour Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Tariq Farmer Armour Memorial Scholarship Fund was created by his family, friends, classmates, and community to celebrate the life of Tariq Farmer Armour and to remember his exceptional spirit and joy for life. Tariq was a 2017 graduate of Bardstown High School in Bardstown, KY where he excelled as an athlete in track and football. Specifically, the fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses for student athletes at Bardstown High School.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact Bardstown High School by visiting btown.k12.ky.us/BHS.aspx.

Thaddeus Colson and Isabelle Saalwaechter Fitzpatrick Memorial Scholarship Fund

Description: The Thaddeus Colson and Isabelle Saalwaechter Fitzpatrick Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by Isabelle Smith in memory of her parents. This fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses of a female student majoring in an environmentally related program and displaying a commitment to the environment.

Eligibility: Female resident of Kentucky; Upcoming full-time college sophomore, junior, or senior attending a recognized four-year public college in Kentucky (Eastern Kentucky University, Kentucky State University, Morehead State University, Murray State University, Northern Kentucky University, University of Kentucky, University of Louisville, or Western Kentucky University); Cumulative 3.0 GPA and in good academic standing; Majoring in an environmentally related program (ex: Agriculture, Biology, Environmental Engineering, Environmental Studies, Horticulture, etc.) and demonstrated financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Thaddeus Colson and Isabelle Saalwaechter Fitzpatrick Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

The Donna Scholarship Fund

Description: The Donna Scholarship Fund was established by Sam and Pat Kinnaird in honor of Pat's sister, Donna McHugh. Donna attended college while working and raising three children. She received a bachelor's degree from the University of Louisville in 2002 and a master's degree from Loyola University in 2010. The Donna Scholarship Fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance to help defray the cost of tuition, books, and fees of single, working mothers residing in Metro Louisville who demonstrate financial need.

Eligibility: Single, working mother; Resident of Metro Louisville, KY; Demonstrate financial need.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Donna Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

The Francis and Deva Manders Scholarship

Description: The Francis and Deva Manders Scholarship was established to help defray college or university expenses of graduating high school seniors from McLean County High School who will attend Owensboro Community & Technical College (OCTC) in Owensboro, KY. Applicants must reside in McLean County, KY, excluding those who reside within the city limits of Calhoun, KY. Preference will be given to students who reside within the city limits of Livermore, KY.

Eligibility: Graduating high school senior from McLean County High School; Enrolled to attend Owensboro Community & Technical College; Preference given to residents of Livermore, KY.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Francis and Deva Manders Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

The Frank B. Thompson, Jr. and F. Barton Thompson III Fund

Description: The Frank B. Thompson, Jr. and F. Barton Thompson III Fund was established to provide grants to St. Francis School in Goshen, KY, so that scholarship assistance can be provided to an economically disadvantaged student to attend St. Francis School in Goshen.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact St. Francis in Goshen by visiting stfrancisschool.org/.

Valley High School Class of 1957 Scholarship Fund

Description: The Valley High School Class of 1957 Scholarship Fund was established by the Class of 1957 to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses to graduating high school seniors of Valley High School.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from Valley High School; Enrolled full-time to attend a college, university, or community college; Cumulative 3.0 GPA; Demonstrate leadership abilities, community service, and extracurricular involvement.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Valley High School Class of 1957 Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Vogt Educational & Leadership Scholarship Fund

Description: The Vogt Educational & Leadership Scholarship Fund was established by Henry V. Heuser, Sr. as a college tuition scholarship fund for students in Jefferson County, KY who demonstrates high standards of scholarship, citizenship, and leadership.

Eligibility: Graduating senior from a Jefferson County Public School; Demonstrates leadership in school, extracurricular, and community activities; Cumulative (weighted) GPA of 3.2 or higher; ACT score of 25 or higher, or an SAT score of 1150 or higher; Completed and/or enrolled in Advanced Placement or equivalent college-level curriculum.

How to Apply: The Vogt Educational & Leadership Scholarship Application will open October 17, 2022 and close November 18, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

W. Norris Duvall Scholarship for Todd County

Description: The W. Norris Duvall Scholarship Fund was established by Mr. W. Norris Duvall to support citizens of Todd County, KY. Grants may be used at any college, university, community college, vocational, trade school, or any other type of post-secondary educational institution in the United States.

Eligibility: Resident of Todd, Logan or Christian County, KY; Cumulative 2.5 GPA; Demonstrate financial need; Full-time student at Lindsey Wilson College.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the W. Norris Duvall Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: No

Wanda Harper Henry and Virgil L. Henry Scholarship Fund

Description: The Wanda Harper Henry and Virgil L. Henry Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray educational expenses of students from Daviess County, Kentucky, to attend Kentucky Wesleyan College.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact Kentucky Wesleyan College by visiting kwc.edu/admissions/financial-aid/scholarships/.

Waverly F. Lee Scholarship Fund

Description: The Waverly F. Lee Scholarship Fund was established to provide annual distributions to the Hopkins County Education Foundation to support the scholarship and educational goals of the Waverly F. Lee Scholarship Fund as separately determined by the Hopkins County Education Foundation.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the Hopkins County Education Foundation by visiting hopkins.kyschools.us.

William J. Kircher Memorial Fund

Description: The William J. Kircher Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance in the form of grants to help defray college or university expenses to students who are graduating from a Jefferson County Public School.

Eligibility: Attend or will attend Bellarmine University, Transylvania University, University of Kentucky, or University of Louisville; Demonstrate financial need; GPA of 2.5 or higher; Demonstrate strong work ethic and personal accountability; graduating from a JCPs School.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the William J. Kircher Memorial Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

William "Sam" & Lera Miller Western Kentucky Scholarship Fund

Description: The William "Sam" & Lera Miller Western Kentucky Scholarship Fund was established to provide scholarship assistance to help defray college or university expenses to non-traditional students attending Western Kentucky University.

Eligibility: Demonstrate financial need; Attending Western Kentucky University; Display a strong work ethic; Although not necessary, preference is given toward students with an aptitude for music.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the William "Sam" & Lera Miller Western Kentucky Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

William Tolbert Whittenberg Scholarship Fund

Description: The William Tolbert Whittenberg Scholarship Fund was established to provide funding to the Fund for the Arts, Inc., for a scholarship to assist pre-college to college-age students pursuing advanced studies in the arts, towards a career in the performing arts.

Eligibility, Application, and Renewability: For more information, please contact the Fund for the Arts by visiting fundforthearts.org/.

Women's Second Chance College Scholarship Fund

Description: The Women's Second Chance College Scholarship Fund was established by Ms. Ruth Ann Tillman to provide assistance, through financial grants and mentoring, to women 25-40 years of age who have the determination and discipline to obtain a bachelor's degree.

Eligibility: Resident of Kentucky or Southern Indiana (Clark, Crawford, Floyd, Harrison, Scott, and Washington Counties); Female, age 25-40; Have a high school diploma or GED and are committed to completing a college degree program in an agreed upon period of time; Demonstrate financial need; Enrolled full or part-time to attend an accredited college, university, or community college.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Women's Second Chance College Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes

Zoeller Company Scholarship Fund

Description: The Zoeller Company Scholarship Fund was established to award scholarships for undergraduate college or university expenses of children between the ages of 17 -24 whose parent or guardian is a current full-time or part-time employee of the Zoeller Company or any of its subsidiaries.

How to Apply: The General Scholarship Application, which includes the Zoeller Company Scholarship, will open December 12, 2022 and close March 31, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. EST. The application will be available via the Community Foundation of Louisville's website.

Renewable: Yes